

3. BOUND PONY

Strict and severe, wear this high pony with your tiniest LBD for serious sex appeal. Pull your hair up into a tight ponytail at the crown of your head using a bristle brush to ensure a bump-free finish.

“Fix with a tight band that won’t budge, then wrap a piece of tape or patent leather around it to add a tough edge,” says Rowe. Poker-straight hair is a must for this look, so prep with L’Oréal Paris Elnett Satin Heat Protect Styling Spray Straight (£5.99; available nationwide) before straightening.

Short on time? “Just straighten the tail after you have created the pony,” suggests Rowe.

MAKE-UP NOTE A graphic eye is the perfect complement to this structured pony. Line the top and bottom inside rim of your eye with black kohl and smudge slightly along the lash line for a grungy effect.
