

prepare for take-off

Want the dream holiday make-up kit? Skip the high-street hassle and head for the departure lounge

You're going on holiday tomorrow and have left packing to the last minute. You dash to the high street and panic-buy a bronzer you don't have time to try and a lipstick that clashes with your holiday wardrobe. Sound familiar? There is a better way. Bypass the pre-holiday panic by shopping at the airport in World Duty Free. Not only is there a huge choice of quality beauty brands available, from Lancôme and Elizabeth Arden to Givenchy and Bobbi Brown, there's also a great selection of travel-exclusive products not on the high street.

A hot pink lip and softly shimmering eyes make for the perfect beach-bar look, so next time you fly, stock up on the beauty essentials used to create it...

IN-FLIGHT TIP
Long journey? Add a hydrating face mask or moisturiser to your shopping list