

Glowing skin

The combination of vitamin D from the sun and escaping work stress means skin is at its blemish-free best on holiday. Maximise your glow with products that enhance (and don't mask) natural beauty. Lancôme's light-as-a-feather Hydra Zen Neurocalm (from the exclusive Travel Must Have Hydration Set, £18, below left) sinks in instantly, while Miracle Air de Teint Foundation (£25.45), below right, gives a fine veil of colour.

Pastel

Holidays are the perfect time to experiment with new shades. Add up the classic smoky eye with a fun lilac shade – from the travel-exclusive Vanity palette (£18) – for a look that's just perfect. Use a shade of pink over the eyelid and a dark shade on the lash line. Finish with Givenchy's Noir Mascara in Black (£12) above right, for

Sculpted cheeks

Fake supermodel cheekbones with a little help from Bare Minerals' Blush in Sorbet (from the travel-exclusive Passionate for Pastels set, £35, below). Blend under your cheekbones, starting just below the apple of your cheek and finishing at your hairline.

IN-FLIGHT TIP
Long journey? Add a hydrating face mask or moisturiser to your shopping list

Watch a makeup tutorial on youtube.com and Facebook worldduttyfr